'Stop online abuse'

BASINGSTOKE: Maria Miller called for the Government to create a proper strategy to tackle online abuse in a speech in parliament last week.

The Basingstoke MP secured and started a debate in the House of Commons on Thursday. In her speech she argued police should be given specific powers to tackle abuse, and specific new laws should be introduced.

She said: "Online abuse affects everyone and the police are overwhelmed by the scale and diversity of abuse.

"The Government needs to create a proper strategy to reject online abuse in all its forms, show it zero tolerance through our legal systems, our police force and through the things we teach our children in schools."

E-fit released after cemetery sexual assault

POLICE have released an e-fit of a man they are looking for in connection with a sexual assault in a Basingstoke cemetery.

He is described as white, in his late teens or early 20s, and around 5ft 9ins tall. He wore a black hooded top with the hood up.

DC Dan Leese of Basingstoke CID said: "We know that this e-fit doesn't show the whole of the suspect's face but we hope that if you know this person, you will recognise some of the features shown."

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

Bitter Blues in Alton Playing in the Midnite Sun

ALDERSHOT-BASED covers By James Richings band Bitter Blues will hope they give their audience a show of a lifetime when they arrive at The Wheatsheaf in Alton on Saturday, July 23.

The fivesome, who will be the pub for their sixth visit.

performing tracks by the likes of ZZ Top, Gary Moore, Kenny Wayne Shepard, Jimi Hendrix and many more, are returning to

The band are a popular hit with punters, with their renditions of well-liked tracks by famous Guitarist Dave Woolger said: "It's always a warm welcome and a lively crowd - especially if our Alton following the 'Crazy Gang' are in town, then the place will be jumping.

"In fact, the whole Market Square area is really vibrant and is a great place for a night out.

"And it is the positive feedback from seeing a venue erupt into a boogieing mass of bodies that spurs us to higher levels - I know it sounds cliched but the enjoyment level rises and it makes for a spectacular night."

Originally in a band called The Colour Red, Dave wanted to join a blues group.

Since then, Bitter Blues have become one of the most popular covers band from Aldershot.

"If anyone wants to get into music, they need to get a teacher and get in a band," he said.

"If you think you have talent then pursue it, live it - put everything into it before you settle into careers/mortgages etc as there is plenty of time for that later."

The free gig starts at 9.30pm.

THE Royal Oak in Bordon will be rolling back the years when covers band Midnite Sun arrive at the venue on Friday, July 15.

The Portsmouth band are made up of Clive Trimby (singer), David Arthur (bassist), Martin Mystery (guitarist), Dave Riddle (keyboardist) and Frank Dymore (drummer).

Frank Dymore

And even though they perform an incredible 80 to 120 gigs a year, drummer Frank and keyboard player Dave have to split their music endeavours with their day jobs, whilst the other three are all retired.

This doesn't bother Frank though, as the part-timer revealed one of the things we loves most when performing.

"I love seeing the audience dance and generally having a good time," he said. "And even though we don't write our own material, we generally speak with most of our audiences and they want to hear songs they are familiar

The band will be at the Liphook Road venue next Friday where they will perform a number of well-known tunes from the likes of The Rolling Stones, Free, Tina Turner, Santana, The Eagles and many more.

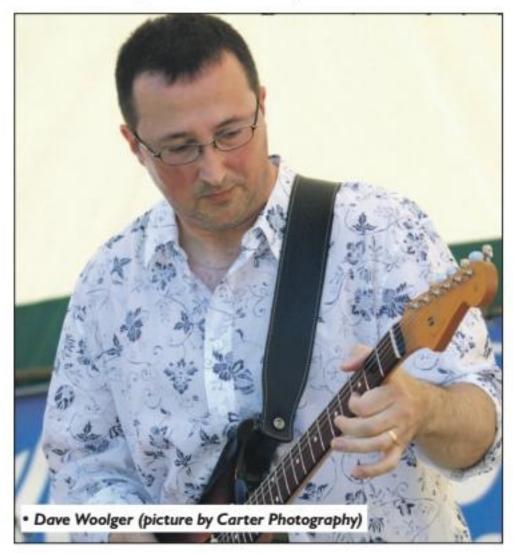

"Clive, Martin and Dave have been together since the dawn of time but I only joined about three years ago after answering an ad on a web site," Frank revealed.

"Dave joined about six months ago."

He added: "We were called The Sly Hardy Band but changed the name last year just because we had new members and wanted a relaunch.

"Clive came up with Midnite Sun and we all agreed on it because nobody could think of a better name."

The free gig will start at 9pm.

Local children tread the boards in Newbury

ALL the months of hard work and preparation finally came to fruition on Saturday 2 July as the children and young people of Newbury put on a show to remember.

Performed at Park House School, the young cast all attend part time theatre school Razzamataz Newbury and have been rehearsing for the show for the last few months.

The whole school were involved in 'Showtime', from the youngest mini age four through to senior students aged 14. The annual performance gives students a chance to demonstrate what they learn each week in classes and shows off the whole Razzamataz Curriculum that features traditional West End musical theatre through to pop singing, street dance and acting for stage and screen.

T h e show was a chance stufor

dents to demonstrate just how much they have achieved and the Principal wanted to give all the children a chance to shine and show off the skills they have been learning each week during the dance, drama and singing classes.

"I'm so proud of each and every student," explains Debbi Ledwith, Principal of Razzamataz Newbury. "Throughout the rehearsals and during the show, their behaviour was impeccable and they showed a real sense of maturity both on and off the stage."

The cast treated the audience to a performance where there was really something for everyone to enjoy. Some of the key moments in the show included extracts from the musicals 'Jungle Book', 'Annie' and 'High School Musical', as well as lots of other group and solo pieces.

"Parents, family and friends were really impressed with the students and many couldn't believe the change in confidence in their children," explains Debbi. "It takes a lot of courage to go on stage and the whole process of putting on a show teaches young people such wonderful life skills from coping with nerves, working to a deadline, being humble and learning to take criticism with an open mind through to collaborating with a whole crew of people.'

The "It takes a lot of courage to showcase has given stushow teaches young people dents a real taste for being on stage and there are many more opportunities planned including a Summer Stage Academy, which runs from 8 to 12 August and is based on the hit musical 'We Will Rock You'.

such wonderful life skills"

The youngsters had a fantastic time as Alana Irvine-Bull, who attends the Inters group explains: "When I heard that I had got the part of Gabriella in the Showcase I was so excited and proud. It's been really hard work to learn all the lines and dance routines but all of the cast have pulled together and made this such a fun experience. Razzamataz is my favourite place to be - attending has helped my confidence, I've made amazing friends and I truly feel that I am part of a big extended family."

Razzamataz Newbury offers a wide range of performing arts styles for children with classes in dance, drama and singing. In all sessions, the emphasis is on having fun, meeting new friends and keeping fit and healthy. Students range in age from 4-14 and a brand new Razz Tots class is launching in September for children aged 2 and 3. In all classes there is a strong emphasis on performance opportunities to help build confidence and skills for life in each student.

Razzamataz Newbury is held at Park House School every Saturday morning. There is currently the opportunity to book a FREE trial session on a strictly first come first served basis. For more information about the school and al the various opportunities that are on offer, email newbury@razzamataz.co.uk or call 01635 905404. Alternatively visit www.newbury.razzamataz.

Fri, Jul 15, 8pm New Greenham Arts MARK THOMAS - WORK IN PROGRESS

Red Shed is the third part in a trilogy that started with the multi award winning shows Bravo Figaro and Cuckooed.

Mark returns to the place where he first started to perform in public, a red wooden shed in Wakefield, the labour club, to celebrate the clubs 50th birthday. Interviewing old friends and comrades Mark pieces together the clubs history and works with the club to campaign with some of the poorest workers in the country for their rights. It is the story of the battle for hope and the survival of a community in a small wooden shed. It is part theatre, part stand up, part journalism, part activism and returns to Mark's obsessions of community and struggle. The show will involve the audience (in a nice way) to help recreate the shed and its inhabitants.

COMEDY NIGHT: PHIL JERROD AND JOHN GORDILLO

Phil Jerrod began his stand-up career underneath an Angus Steakhouse in 2012. Since then he has failed his PhD, walked out of his job in publishing and been entertaining audiences up and down the country with his elegant rants on the often unfathomable problems of modern life. His innovative stream-of-consciousness style, inspired by a harsh upbringing in the cruel and unforgiving conditions of middleclass rural Warwickshire, has seen him perform in clubs, arts centres and theatres all across the UK and helped build his reputation as having grown one of the largest beards in stand-up comedy. He has recently been nominated for the Leicester Mercury Comedian of the Year Award 2014, and in 2013 was a semi-finalist in So You Think You're Funny New Act of the Year Competition and a quarter finalist in the Amused Moose Laugh Off. John Gordillo is a Perrier Award-nominated English director and

Comedian who has directed shows by the Comedian Eddie Izzard and was the host and co-creator of The RDA (Recommended Daily Allowance), a daily late-night topical comedy talk show, which played heavily with the conventions of the genre The show ran for 60 episodes until BBC Choice was rebranded as BBC Three.

Gordillo returned to stand up in 2006, taking three critically successful solo shows to the Edinburgh festival in 07, 08 and 09. He has written and directed extensively for TV and live comedy, including a long partnership with US comedian Reginald D Hunter with whom, according to Gordillo's website, he is writing and producing an independent film.

DS3 Cabrio to challenge the Mini

WHEN the Citroen DS3 first entered the market in 2010, it was met with, well, let's say not much tail wagging, but more head shaking. The reason? Well, that's simple, many people remember the old DS and many were struggling to see the significance.

Back in the day, the original DS was chic and iconic and many people thought the Citroen DS3 looked ugly and had no place using the iconic DS branding, but that soon changed - because it sold like hot cakes soon after launch and became a sales success.

Finally in 2016, there was a branding change away from Citroen because DS Automobiles wanted that upper-market theme to shine through on all its core line-up models and with that change, the now-rebranded DS3 was finally free doing. to compete with the very niche-looking BMW Mini.

POWER AND EFFICIENCY:

Engine: 1598cc petrol engine with 120kW of power (165HP) and 240Nm of torque is a good starting point, although, I am not a fan of the petrol engines in this model and I would always pick the diesel version if it was available. But if you are in the market for a petrol version, then you can open or close the roof at speeds

By Anthony Yates

the 120kw engine is the one that offers the most refinement. Fuel consumption comes in at about 50mpg combined and CO, emissions of about 129g/km, although I have to say the DS3 0-62 time of 7.6sec is very respectable indeed.

ON THE ROAD:

Being a Cabrio, you would expect it to be very floppy and soft into the corners, but you would be wrong. The DS engineers have adding a lot of body stiffing into DS3's chassis and it actually felt very well planted, even in some of the hard-cornering areas, although I would of liked a bit more feedback from the steering and a little bit more feel as to what the road surface beneath me is

INTERIOR & TECHNOLOGY

I'm only going to talk about the DS3's party piece- that clever niche Cabrio roof system. According to the booklet that come with the car, it clearly stated that it only takes '16 seconds to transform DS 3 Cabrio from a cosy coupe to sophisticated sun trap with the push of a simple button on the centre console, of up to 70mph'. OK, groovy, but what about the technology then? The new DS 3 benefits from a centrally-mounted 7-inch touchscreen, along with cruise control, RDS radio with six speakers and AUX socket, DAB digital radio, Bluetooth® handsfree and media streaming with USB socket. Add in Mirror Screen and you have the ability to use Apple CarPlay™ and MirrorLink® for Android to seamlessly mirror compatible smartphones on the vehicles 7" touchscreen.

SAFETY:

ABS with Electronic Brakeforce Distribution, Emergency Braking Assistance, Electronic Stability Control (ESC) Switchable on THP versions, Hill Start Assist function, Active City Brake, driver and passenger front lateral and curtain airbags, remote central locking with deadlocks, two rear ISOFIX mounting points and factory-fitted immobiliser and alarm.

TO SUM UP:

I like it. I don't like the boot as it's a little small, but it's still a better size than a Mini. In fact, it may be even better than a Mini all round. Now there's a surprise.

 Price: (from) £21,595 OTR as tested not including fitted options.

Narrow win

CRICKET: An impressive 127 knock from Daniel Plume earned Hartley Wintney a narrow victory against South Wilts on Saturday.

Wintney batted first and set a target of 286-7 from their 50 overs, with other scores including a 42 from Patrick Joseph and 35 from Matthew Kerr.

They might have been confident of that being enough to take the win, but South Wilts ran them close in response as they ultimately ended just three runs shy on 283-9.

Ben Draper and Tom Cowley both got half centuries, while Owain Phillips added 49 as they just missed out on an impressive fightback.

The result leaves Wintney seventh in the Southern Premier League Division Two standings with an average of 12.88 points.

They next travel to Calmore Sports on Saturday.

In a statement, the club said: "[John] was very well known, loved by many at the club and will be sorely missed.

A minute's silence will be held in his memory at Town's first home pre-season friendly against Salisbury on Saturday.

Vantroba signs for fourth season Rose ready for MIROSLAV Vantroba is the latest player to be re-signed by Basingstoke Bison as they prepare for their English Premier Ice Hockey League (EPIHL) title defence.

The 37-year-old Slovakian defenceman will return for his fourth season with the Herd, completing Bison's import quota for the 2016/17 campaign.

He has spent the majority of his career playing across the top flights of Slovakian and Czech hockey, before making the move to Basingstoke ahead of the 2013/14 season.

Since then Vantroba has made 174 appearances for Bison, netting 23 goals.

A statement on Bison's club website said: "Vantroba's experience on the blueline has been a key part of the team's success over the past few seasons, culminating in being crowned an EPIHL champion last campaign.

"We all look forward to seeing Miroslav back in action during the upcoming campaign."
